MISSION TRIP TO INDIA

Traveling to India February 19 will be Brother Howard Hellwig (Campbellsville, Kentucky), Pastor Pete Canciglia (Spotsylvania, Virginia) and Pastor Cameron Smith (Marshall, North Carolina). Your prayers for the safety and success of this mission team are appreciated. These brothers will be in South India for ten days preaching and teaching at various locations in the state of Andhra Pradesh. Additionally, they will assess the needs of this dynamic work of the Lord, of the present congregations, proposed construction and of the orphanage ministry.

With the generous help of God's people, they expect to cover the costs incurred by the saints in India for the special meetings conducted. They also hope to present love offerings for the work of the Lord in India generally and to each of the Indian pastors. If you would like to make a contribution to assist our brothers and sisters in India, please use one of the offering envelopes and mark it India Mission Trip. Do pray for Brother Howard and Pastors Pete and Cameron as they continue to plan and prepare as well as while they are in India.
